Army Recruits to Be Secured in Smaller Cities and Towns to SERVE FOR MUCH SHORTER TERMS

Italian Strikers Drive American Workmen From Their Jobs.

A PASTOR DEPOSED FOR DRUNKENNESS

PETECIAL TELEGRAN TO THE DISPATCH. BEAVER FALLS, April 15 .- Captain F. W. Mansfield is here for the purpose of establishing a recruiting station for the United States Army. To a reporter the United States officer said the Government is determined to establish recruiting stations outside of the cities, as it is thought a better class of men can be secured in the smaller towns than is available in the cities. The Government, he says, is desirous of securing a first-class grade of men, and instead of enlisting them for five years the term will be made three years only. The men will also be trained to some useful occupation in addition to their military tuctics, so that at the end of three years the men will be in better shape and make more useful citizens than before they enlisted. The Captain said as it is now the men who enlist for five years are practically worthless except as soldiers. In brief, the Government proposes to establish a training school on a large scale for young men. It is also the intention to estab-lish a station at Butler, Pa. The Captain left

A DEN OF YOUNG THIEVES.

The Rendezvous of Juvenile Novel Readers, Laden With Plunder, Found.

(SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.) UNIONTOWN, April 15 .- The citizens of this place have been annoved for some time past by petty thieves. Last night the rendezvous of the thieves was found. It is a shanty recently built by a number of boys beside the old Beeson race, near McFarland Brothers' planing mill. race, near McFarlaud Brothers' planing mill.
It was built with lumber taken from McFarlaud Brothers' yard. Late last night Jaceb McFarland, a member of the firm, accompanied by Policeman Pegg and Councilman McCormick, went up to investigate it. They broke down the door and soon found they were in a den of thieves, although the thieves were absent.
Through a trap door which, upon a close examination, the officers discovered in the floor, they found their was into a cellar. There they they found their way into a cellar. There they found carpenters' tools of every description and other articles. Two jimmies were found which here the marks of recent use. There were also two hams, coffee and other provisions were also two hams, coffee and other provisions, besides necessary kitchen utensils. A member of the gang was seen to visit the place frequently yesterday, and it is thought that the juvenile handits, fearing a rand, had removed the greater part of their plunder. Some of the suspected boys are members of good families, who have been led astray by had associates and the perusal of dime novel literature.

ATTACKED WITH A STILETTO

Terrific Struggle in His Own House of Man With an Enemy.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.; MCKRESPORT, April 15 -At 2 o'clock this morning John Morrissey, of this city, had a terrible encounter with a man who forced his way into his house. He was awakened by hearing a noise in the room below, and, thinking it was his brother, he called to him from the head of the stairs. He was answered by a man, who of the stairs. He was answered by a man, who told him to come down. Morrissey picked up as Indian club and started down the stairs, and at the bottom a man jumped out at him from a doorway. The fellow made a ferce lunge at Morrissey's heart with a stilette, but the latter dedged and was only slightly cut. A terrible struggle followed for the possession of Frightened at the determined resistance, the man scrambled to his feet and dashed at the window. Morrissey reached him with the club, and the man was knocked through the window to the pavement. He yelled for dear life and was certainly badly burt, though he managed to escape before Morrissey could dress and follow him. The fellow was heavy and dark, and left behind him a long-bisded Raham dirk. He evidently intended murder. No trace of him can be found. Morrissey has no idea as to the identity of the man, as he says he has no enemies among the foreign eloment.

RESEMBLES A WHITE CAP OUTRAGE.

Rough Treatment by a Mob of a West Virginia Family.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. WHEELING, April 15.-An atrocious in-stance of mob law occurred at the house of a farmer named Henry Church, living about three miles from Burton. About midnight last, while Church's three daughters were in the house with a hired hand, a mob of 25 masked men surrounded the place, burst open the doors and rushed in.

The half-aroused and scantily-attired inmates were hustled out of doors, where all four were given an unmerciful beating. This done, the mob set fire to the building and it was burned to the ground with its centents, Church, the father of the girls, was ill at the home of one of his daughters, and thus es-caped sharing the same fate.

DEPOSED FOR DRUNKENNESS.

A Clergyman Ejected From the Fold by His Own Presbytery. SPECIAL TELEGRAN TO THE DISPATCH.

MANSFIELD, O., April 15.-At the meeting of the Mansfield Presbytery of the U. P. Church here this afternoon, Rev. John Gailey, formerly paster at Millersburg, was deposed from the ministry on the charge of drunken-The allegations were that he was "beastly drunk at New Lisbon, last June." When the sentence was pronounced to-day, Rev. Mr. Galley said the Presbytery might as well put a bullet through his head for all the good he will amount to hereafter.

CUITING DOWN THEIR FORCE.

The American Ax and Tool Company Will Lop Off Over 100 Men. SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. BEAVER FALLS, April 15 .- A notice has been nosted up in the shops of the American Ax and Tool Works, at this place, that on May 1 the working force will be reduced by over 109 Some days ago the men made a demand for an increase of wages on May 1. The demand was sent to the headquarters of the company

DRIVEN AWAY BY ALIENS. American Laborers Replace Italian Strikers

on Railroad Work,

TPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. NEW CASTLE, April 15 .- The Italians at Lav rence Junction employed by the Pennsylvania lizilway went out on a strike a few days ago, and their places were filled by Americans, who have been working ever since.

To-day the infuriated Italians descended on the workers in a body, drove the Americans away and threw the foreman into the river. More trouble is expected to-merrow, when another attempt will be made to put the Americans to work.

Our special sale of Suits and Overcoats, which has now been in progress three days, has been an entire success. The volume of business has gathered strength day by day, each day being better than the one that preceded it. In order that all may have a fair show, we have concluded to extend the time

And so on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week we will continue to sell those high-grade and stylish Spring Suits and Overcoats at $10 and $12.

Come in single and double-breasted sacks and 3 and 4-button cutaways of the very latest style. They are guaranteed all-wool cassimeres, cheviots, worsteds, elegantly made up and would be cheap at $15 to $18 per suit. Regular and extra long sizes, also short and stout sizes.

We can fit you hand-

Come in elegant meltons, kerseys, cheviots and mixtures in the very latest patterns out this spring, and are made in the Chesterfield, half-box and full box styles, with and without inlaid velvet collars, silk facings or without, silk sleeve linings and the very finest of trimmings. A wide field for choice.

Here's a chance to save money on your spring outfit. These Suits and Overcoats are just as stylish, just as well made and just as durable as custom work, and the saving in price on even an inferior quality of made-to-measure clothing is very great.

You ought to lose no time in examining them, as they will not disappoint you.
